

COUNSELORS

Must be 18 years old and 5 years older than oldest camper.

Be prepared to show unconditional love to everyone at camp.

Have a sense of humor.

Enjoy working with young people.

Camp is for the “kids”!!

Be willing to leave job and family cares at home.

Attend counselor training day.

Pray for all camp staff and campers.

Work with counselor of opposite sex to lead family groups of 8-10 kids.

Be willing to listen to others and not do all the talking.

You and at least one other adult will be responsible for your cabin group which will be different than your family group.

May be asked to lead a special interest group such as music, crafts, sex, money management, etc.

Prepare for camp ahead of time by reviewing camp curriculum provided.

Attend directors meeting for your specific camp if one is held.

Join in the games, singing and other camp activities.

Be aware of where your family group is and what they are doing at all times.

Be flexible enough to allow group discussion go where God is leading even when it is not on your agenda.